SUBJECT: Loss of a past member, friend and CMO for the WPRM

On Monday, February 5, 2018, John V. Buberniak passed away at the age of 52 near his hometown of Carbondale Pennsylvania after an 11-day ordeal in ICU at the Geisinger Community Medical center in Scranton Pennsylvania where he and his wife Pamela traveled for John's Mother's funeral on January 26th. Many of you will remember him for being the WPRM CMO for several years and getting the WPRM many needed batteries for our RAL loco's.

John was a good friend to many and was a mechanic for the UPRR in Roseville, California.

This still brings chills to me. I can only imagine though that Roseville's management is blowing their stacks instead and that John is smiling SO BIG watching over that too! lol !!! Good, let them!
