

Preserving "The Feather River Route"

The Train Sheet

January/February 1990

Issue No. 41

WP 484. Nearing the end of its active life, the WP 484 waits for its next assignment on the ready track at Stockton on June 20, 1950.

When Western Pacific needed additional motive power during World War II, The War Production Board allocated 6 locomotives from Southern Pacific's GS-6 order to Western Pacific.
