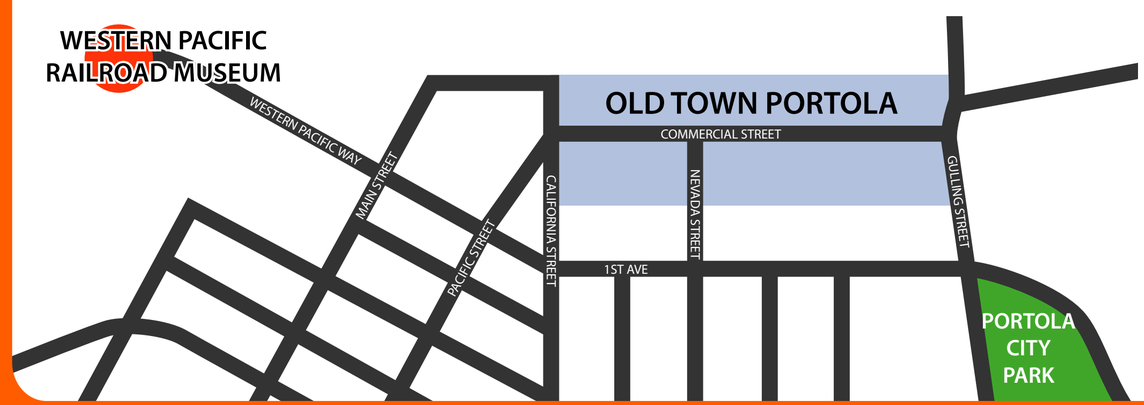
WESTERN PACIFIC RAILROAD MUSEUM

Discover railroading history at the Western Pacific Railroad Museum in Portola. Home to one of the nation's largest collections of preserved railroad equipment, the museum, which focuses on the Western Pacific Railroad that ran through Portola from 1909 to 1983, offers historic locomotives, railcars, exhibits, and hands-on experiences, including the popular "Run A Locomotive" program. Visitors can explore the rail yard, learn about the legacy of transcontinental rail service in the Feather River Canyon, and enjoy family-friendly events throughout the year.



700 Western Pacific Way - just west of Old Town Portola
530.832.4131 - www.WPLives.org - www.RunALocomotive.com

scan for operation hours and admission prices