The February Board Meeting was held in Woodland California aboard the "Two Rivers" private railcar. - photo by Paul Finnegan

The "Two Rivers" was built in 1948 by the Pullman Company as one of 97 lightweight 10 roomette - 6 double bedroom sleeping cars, named "Scioto River", for the New York Central's famed Twentieth Century Limited. In 1965, it was sold to the Canadian National and was named "Hay River". It was used by VIA Rail on trains across Canada and became a private railcar in 1995.
